

I urge the FCC not to give into the demands of telemarketers. Do not weaken New Jersey's do not call law which protects residents against unwanted and intrusive telephone calls. Please honor your obligation to protect the public and not selfish business interests.